25X1 ✓ 21. [ ] TRAVEL Talked to Pat Long, House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence staff, and he advised me of the following itinerary for Representative Bob Wilson (R., Calif.): arriving - evening - 23 March in Copenhagen and remaining in Copenhagen for two days; arriving in Moscow 27 March where he will remain for three days. I have passed on the above itinerary in considerably more detail to SA/DO/O, along with the request that the Congressman be given a pre-trip briefing on 21 March at 3:30 p.m. in the Committee offices.

25X1 With regard to [ ] personal staffer of Representative Robert McClory (R., Ill.), I told Pat that my research of the files had revealed that it had been our understanding that a Top Secret clearance would be processed through the House Judiciary Committee by the FBI for [ ] future involvement in electronic surveillance legislation. I told Mr. Long that I was very surprised that the clearances had not yet been processed and had gathered from FBI contacts (per [ ] former Legislative Counsel) that the FBI has not yet been instructed by the House Judiciary Committee to process the clearance. I suggested to Pat Long that Representative McClory, as the Ranking Republican on the Judiciary Committee, was probably in the best position to expedite this clearance process. Pat said he fully understood and would be happy to handle the problem from there.

25X1 22. [ ] LEGISLATION Called Tracey Cole, OMB, to tell her we had no problems with H.R. 10691, the International Development Cooperation Act of 1978. I said we would therefore be sending a short letter to OMB stating this.
